

- Received
- Drafts
- Sent
- Correct Ans
- Reminders
- Calendar
- Archives
- Feedback

Search

Shortcuts

The default view is empty.

Received

1

Drafts

Sent

Correct Ans

Reminders

Calendar

Archives

Feedback

Search

Shortcuts

A. Grammar, spelling and punctuation

1. "Reading, writing, baking and painting have been my passion for the longest time."
"Reading, writing, baking, and painting have been my passion for the longest time."

The first sentence does not use the serial comma; the second example does.

(In a box, we could say: "A serial comma comes before 'and' or 'or' in a list. It is far less common in UK English than US English.)

Check the following examples and mark them right or wrong according to the preferred style in UK English. Correct any errors.

- I went to the market and bought bananas, mangoes, and peaches.
- Today at school I had geography, history and maths.
- Do you like K-pop, classical music or jazz?
- The stripes on the Indian flag are orange, white, and green.
- My brothers' names are Vivaan, Arjun, and Rahul.
- He can't decide whether to have the large, medium, or small pizza.

2. "The soft pitter-patter of the raindrops."

An adjective describes a noun. In the sentence above, the adjective "soft" is describing the noun "pitter-patter".

Find two suitable adjectives for each of these nouns. We've suggested some ideas for the first one:

(A box could give tips such as: 'Don't restrict yourself to how the object or person looks. Experience it with all your senses – how does it sound, feel, taste or smell?')

- plates (e.g. white, china, broken, smooth, shiny, large, antique, dirty)
- soldiers
- cobwebs
- knife
- cork

SEND

If a paper arrives from the teacher:
- a red badge will appear next to Received and;
- at log in, the paper will be open

Received

Drafts

Sent

Correct Ans

Reminders

Calendar

Archives

Feedback

Search

Shortcuts

Once the student has sent the paper, it will move out of Received and into Sent.

And default view will be back- empty screen.

Received

1

Drafts

Sent

Correct Ans

Reminders

Calendar

Archives

Feedback

Search

Shortcuts

A. Grammar, spelling and punctuation

1. "Reading, writing, baking and painting have been my passion for the longest time."
"Reading, writing, baking, and painting have been my passion for the longest time."

The first sentence does not use the serial comma; the second example does.

(In a box, we could say: "A serial comma comes before 'and' or 'or' in a list. It is far less common in UK English than US English.)

Check the following examples and mark them right or wrong according to the preferred style in UK English. Correct any errors.

- I went to the market and bought bananas, mangoes, and peaches.
- Today at school I had geography, history and maths.
- Do you like K-pop, classical music or jazz?
- The stripes on the Indian flag are orange, white, and green.
- My brothers' names are Vivaan, Arjun, and Rahul.
- He can't decide whether to have the large, medium, or small pizza.

2. "The soft pitter-patter of the raindrops."

An adjective describes a noun. In the sentence above, the adjective "soft" is describing the noun "pitter-patter".

Find two suitable adjectives for each of these nouns. We've suggested some ideas for the first one:

(A box could give tips such as: 'Don't restrict yourself to how the object or person looks. Experience it with all your senses – how does it sound, feel, taste or smell?')

- plates (e.g. white, china, broken, smooth, shiny, large, antique, dirty)
- soldiers
- cobwebs
- knife
- cork

When the teacher sends the paper Back For Action
- the red badge will appear again (Received) and;
- at log in, the paper will be open again

Received

Drafts

Sent

Correct Ans

Reminders

Calendar

Archives

Feedback

Search

Shortcuts

Once the student has Re-Sent the paper, it will again move out of Received and into Sent.

And the default view will be back- empty screen.

Received

Drafts

Sent

Correct Ans 1

Reminders

Calendar

Archives

Feedback

Search

Shortcuts

After the teacher has Accepted & Saved the paper:
- the correct answer sheet will arrive into the Correct Ans folder and;
- a red badge will appear next to Correct Ans.

Received

Drafts

Sent

Correct Ans

Reminders

Calendar

Archives

Feedback

Search

Shortcuts

Choose The Right Noun For Each Sentence; Grmr; Noun; Recd Jun 15; Submitted Jun 18

Choose The Right Noun For Each Sentence; Grmr; Noun; Recd Jun 15; Submitted Jun 18

Choose The Right Noun For Each Sentence; Grmr; Noun; Recd Jun 15; Submitted Jun 18

Choose The Right Noun For Each Sentence; Grmr; Noun; Recd Jun 15; Submitted Jun 18

Choose The Right Noun For Each Sentence; Grmr; Noun; Recd Jun 15; Submitted Jun 18

The list of correct answers will appear in descending chronological order: the most recent on top and the oldest at the bottom.

These items cannot be selected, moved or deleted